“The Local Rock is a true community magazine”

Organisers of Cadeby Fete 2024 are hugely grateful to The Local Rock for its support in promoting this year's event and helping to make it such a success. The fete is the main annual fundraiser for Cadeby Church and all money raised helps to keep the church in good repair and open daily for all who want to visit. This year, the event was held for the first time at Market Bosworth Rugby Club, where more than 500 visitors helped to raise an amazing £5,000. Fete co-ordinator Rachel Parrish said: "The Local Rock is a true community magazine and goes out of its way to support people working to make a difference in their own communities.

"The magazine's support for this year's fete was especially welcome as we needed to spread the message about our new venue, and with The Local Rock being read by so many households in the area, it was the perfect way to let people know."

Cadeby Fete is excited to announce a new venue for 2024

The annual church fundraising event will this year be held at Market Bosworth Rugby Club in Cadeby Lane on Saturday 10th August 2024.

Along with its popular Fun Day Show, the fete will feature all the usual stalls, as well as a quiz night, a raffle, a table with a top prize of £100, and much more in addition. As well as its own music, raffles, tables and live music.

Cadeby Church members have the following to say: "We have been hugely grateful to our village hosts for allowing us to hold the fete in their grounds for many years and are now looking forward to welcoming visitors to a new venue with the very generous support of Market Bosworth Rugby Club."

Cadeby Church's special daily 4th of July service will be held at 11am and have community services and events throughout the year.

Floods Hit Nuneaton Homes and Businesses

Staff at a private medical clinic in Nuneaton have told how they used sandbags to battle rising flood waters at The Nurses Clinic in Attleborough during the recent downpours.

The clinic was one of a number of properties on Attleborough Green to be flooded on Thursday 26 September.

Marie Burdett and Lucy Lower tried putting sandbags outside the doors of the business, which only opened in June, but could not hold the water back.

"It just kept coming, there was nothing we could have done at the time except for hope and pray," Ms Burdett has said.

"We tried to get the word out last night, but it just happened so quickly."

With the help of family and friends the pair started cleaning up on Friday, but said a lot of damage had been caused.

More than 20 warnings and alerts were in place across Warwickshire after the region saw widespread disruption due to flooding.

Forecasters said more than three times the average monthly rain has fallen in many places in England during September.

"Do not attempt to drive through flooded roads - you put yourself and others, including our emergency services, at risk if you do," Warwickshire County Council said.

Nurse's Promotion is a First for George Eliot

A nurse at Nuneaton's George Eliot Hospital has become the first of the internationally recruited nurses to achieve a senior nursing leadership role at ward level in the Trust.

The achievement comes after Sakshi Sachdeva was successfully appointed as a Clinical Sister.

Sakshi has taken up the role in the hospital's Arbury Lodge team which specialises in 'complex discharges' where people need special care arrangements or adaptations in their home before they are able to leave hospital.

Sakshi joined the Trust as part of a successful international nurse recruitment programme which has seen internationally educated nurses join the Trust over the last two years.

Sakshi said "Taking on the role is a significant responsibility, but I felt confident in my readiness for this challenge and my ability to handle the demands of the position."

"Having worked at Arbury Lodge for almost two years, I've experienced firsthand the incredible support and camaraderie among our team."

"Our ward manager and my colleagues create a truly supportive environment where we help each other thrive, making our work both fulfilling and enjoyable."

Since the Trust started overseas recruitment journey it has recruited 110 internationally educated nurses in ten separate cohorts, all of which are now working as valued members of our nursing teams across the Trust.

Natalie Green, Chief Nursing Officer, at George Eliot Hospital said: "I was thrilled when I heard Sakshi's news about her promotion. This promotion is not only an exciting opportunity for Sakshi but also a testament to the value that internationally educated nurses bring to the team at George Eliot Hospital."

"She has worked incredibly hard and settled well into the hospital and Arbury Lodge, bringing a wealth of knowledge and skills."

"Sakshi has demonstrated that with the support of our recruitment team and a wider help network, there are lots of opportunities to progress a nursing career at the George Eliot and make a difference to our patients."

Measures to Bring People Back to Town Centre

In an attempt to encourage people back into the town centre, a Public Space Protection Order (PSPO) could be introduced in Nuneaton.

Nuneaton and Bedworth Borough Council and Warwickshire Police have said that “over the past year, there has been an increase in anti-social behaviour in Nuneaton and Bedworth town centres, which has resulted in the public not feeling safe and avoiding the locations.”

They wish to introduce the new PSPO which will permit them to take action against those committing anti-social behaviour in Nuneaton and Bedworth towns.

Inspector Ryan Walker from the Safer Neighbourhood Team, Nuneaton and Bedworth added: “Over the past year, the public’s confidence to use our town centres for everyday business has decreased.

“In my opinion this is due to the congregation of groups taking part in anti-social behaviour, such as anti-social cycling and intentional covering of faces to cause wider distress to our communities.

“Our aim is to work in collaboration to restore the confidence the public deserve, making our town centres the foundations of our communities.

“The PSPO will be fundamental, allowing for wider enforcement, targeting those people who are causing the community unnecessary problems.

“The police and the local authority will be looking to enforce this PSPO robustly, making sure there is continuous engagement with the individuals involved to negate wider concerns or future occurrences .”

The idea is that the order will enable them to effectively deal with any suspected individuals and build back public confidence in the community.

People can let the council know their views on the PSPO until 7 October 2024.

Leicester Animal Aid Looking for a Home for a Very Special Resident

A local rehoming charity is appealing for help to find a home for a very special resident who has a heart condition.

Leicester Animal Aid has been caring for four-year-old Staffordshire Bull Terrier cross, Maxie, for more than two months. Sadly, this friendly and loving girl, has had no interest since she came into the Centre as a stray.

Her kennel mum, Nicole, says that you couldn't wish for a better companion. Maxie wants to be with you all the time and loves cuddles and hugs. She is a bundle of fun and cheers you up no matter what mood you're in. She loves a chat and enjoys playing with her toys. Whilst she needs to be the only pet, she'd be very happy to live with older children (around 12 plus).

Although Maxie is a very busy girl who loves to learn new things she is on medication for congenital heart disease and will only need limited exercise. She will be covered under L.A.A.'s Vet Support Scheme and will need to be rehomed within an hour's drive of the Centre.

If you're interested in finding out more about Maxie give the Centre a call on 01455 888257 or fill in an interest form on L.A.A.'s website www.leicesteranimalaid.org.uk
