Here Comes Summer at The Local Rock

The Local Rock

So far, we have had a wonderful year here at The Local Rock Magazine, having bought you the latest editorial stories and the latest from our advertisers, bringing the local community together.

Our commitment to all our advertising clients, our valued readers and the local communities in our Villages, Hinckley and Nuneaton areas continues to be absolute.

We have seen some fantastic new businesses opening locally, and positive news for Hinckley, Villages and Nuneaton.

We have always been passionate about supporting local News, local Events, local charities which all have needed the extra support in 2026.

So now we are entering into summer for real its time for advertisers to help their customers get sorted for the season – be that sorting the garden, getting ready for holidays, getting the house straight – or even your own wardrobe, hair or health!

But we are not just an advertising magazine. We have always focused on our editorial content, supporting events, achievements, charities and local stories.

So let us know what you've done or have got going on – and we'll do the rest!

Enjoy your Summer!

A huge thank you to Halcyon Days for these lovely flowers.

Charity Champions Bike for Lights

As a family they have already raised thousands of pounds for Mary Ann Evans Hospice.

But that's not enough for Nuneaton's Roy Davenport and his clan – they're taking on a new challenge as they celebrate a decade of supporting the local charity.

Roy, alongside son David, daughter Sarah and grandson Owen, will tackle the Tommy Godwin Challenge in Birmingham on Sunday 28th June.

The family will complete a 45-mile cycling route, with all sponsorship and donations going towards their annual Cromdale Road Christmas Lights fundraising appeal in aid of the hospice.

Roy only took up cycling year ago after being gifted a bicycle. Weekly family rides soon became part of life for Roy, David, Sarah, Owen and granddaughter Jessica.

Roy and wife Denise are preparing for their tenth year of fundraising through their popular Christmas Lights display, a festive attraction for local residents.

For nine years supporters have helped raise £7,795.05 for the hospice through donations collected at the display and via their dedicated JustGiving page.

Mary Ann Evans Hospice provides specialist care and support for people living with life-limiting illnesses, while also offering vital support to families and carers. Like many hospices across the country, it relies heavily on donations from the local community.

Before taking on their cycling challenge, Roy and Denise will also be promoting the event at the Mary Ann Evans Hospice Summer Fayre, taking place in the hospice gardens from 12pm to 3pm on Saturday 27th June.

Anyone wishing to support Roy, Denise and their family can donate through their Cromdale Christmas Lights JustGiving page, with all proceeds helping Mary Ann Evans Hospice continue its work within the local community.

Experience the Beauty of Monochrome

The East Midlands Monochrome Group has returned to Nuneaton Museum & Art Gallery for the first time since 2014.

And its exhibition, The Monochrome Experience, can be seen at the venue until Saturday, 27 June.

The touring exhibition features monochrome photography with the aim of promoting the beauty of the monochrome image.

The East Midlands Monochrome Group, founded in March 1999, was created with the mission of preserving and promoting monochrome photography.

Based in Sywell Village Hall, Northamptonshire, the group attracts both emerging and experienced talent, consisting of members from across the region.

Their annual touring exhibition features around 50 monochrome works, and this year the Group has returned to the Nuneaton Museum & Art Gallery to proudly showcase their photography.

This year's touring exhibition features 46 carefully selected photographs, whether taken on film, slide, digital camera, or smart phone, to demonstrate the beauty of the monochrome image.

The photographic works range from picturesque landscape scenery to unique city views and floral images, vividly capturing unique moments in time.

A spokesperson for Nuneaton and Bedworth Borough Council said: "For those who have a passion for monochrome photography or just want a fun day out, join us at the Museum for a family-friendly unforgettable experience."

THE UK'S #1 KITCHEN MAKEOVER COMPANY

On the Recycling Ball for World Cup

The World Cup is here! And that means that many in Nuneaton will be enjoying celebrations and barbecues.

This is likely to mean there will be lots of extra materials to recycle and place in your brown bin.

There are many items that you can recycle including paper, cardboard, tins, glass, mixed glass, cartons and most plastic bottles, excluding hard plastics.

During this tournament there will be many extra aluminium cans which can be recycled in your brown-lid bin and could be back on the shelves in as little as 60 days, but disposable barbecues cannot be recycled in your brown-lid bin and can be taken to Judkins Recycling Centre.

Recycling saves resources, protects natural habitats and the environment, saves energy and reduces landfill and is estimated to save more than 18 million tonnes of CO2 each year, equivalent to taking five million cars off the road.

Cllr Shane Coates-Jarman, Portfolio Holder for Planning, Enforcement and Public Services, said: "With the anticipated increase in recyclable products during an event like the World Cup, it is fantastic that residents in Nuneaton and Bedworth can enjoy cheering on their favourite teams and recycle more while helping to reduce the impact on our planet."

Mural Honours Big, Friendly Giant

A mural can be seen at Attleborough Liberal Club to local character Eliot Boland, 39, who was diagnosed with cancer five-and-a-half years ago and died in February.

Described as a 'Big friendly giant' Eliot was six foot four and a big character in the community.

Eliot's mum and dad, Mark and Ann, were joined at the unveiling by his brothers Ashley and Lance with nephew Rio Eliot's wife Jenna, who described the mural as "incredible", said it was based on a photograph of her engineer husband in Barmouth, Wales.

She said: "Eliot was such a kind, loving human and it's so lovely to see how many hearts he touched."

"It's the perfect dedication to a wonderful young man, who I was lucky enough to call mine."

Eliot's mum Ann said: "My son touched a lot of people's hearts. He was just just like a BFG, a big friendly giant, because he was so tall. And he was always so happy right up to his final day. He always had a smile on his face and he fought and fought and fought."

She added: "My husband and I are just absolutely overwhelmed with the support and the love and his brothers Lance, Ashley and Sam feel the same too."

Save The Date - Cadeby Fete & Fun Dog Show

Fete admission will be £1 for adults, with accompanied children free, plus free on-site car parking. Entries to classes for the popular dog show cost £2 each.

There will be the traditional stalls and side-shows, including Cadeby pre-loved clothes and jewellery, white elephant, home-made cakes, books and games, a raffle with a top prize of £100 cash, and teas served in the clubhouse, where the Rugby Club will also be running a bar.

All money raised will help to keep Cadeby Church well cared-for and open daily for all.

This year marks the 40th anniversary of the death of Cadeby's most famous Rector, the Revd Teddy Boston, a friend of Thomas the Tank Engine author the Revd Wilbert Awdry, who featured Teddy as The Fat Clergyman (not the Fat Contoller!) in two of the books in the series.

Memorials to Mr Boston and references to the Cadeby Light Railway, which he ran around the neighbouring Rectory garden, can be seen in and around the church.

Money from last year's fete has helped to pay for recently-completed re-pointing work and the restoration of the south aisle window stonework.
